

ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS

What were the most important benefits of the project work to you?

- To know a different types of work in the class and encourage me to give to the students a practical view of my subject.
- Meet colleagues of other countries and know more about their educational systems.
- this project was a way to reduce prejudices and to build an open-mind society
- Overcoming cultural barriers
- Gaining information about other educational systems and expanding horizons
- In terms of professional experience Erasmus has undeniable advantages : as knowledge of other education systems , Methods and means of learning and the opportunity to participate in international projects . Also , knowledge of new countries and cultures has a positive impact in your intellectual and social development .
- exercise the English language
- Increased intercultural awareness, cooperation
- A new goal in my job encourages me a lot
- The educational systems from other countries
- Communication with colleagues from other European countries and contact with their educational systems, the practice of the English language, strengthening skills, and developing skills (cooperation, patience, tolerance, ..) are the most important benefits of the implementation of the program
- the improvement of the intercultural competencies
- The great experience for students and teachers as well to work together with partners from other European countries and to meet them in their home countries.
- The knowledge of other different cultures. Also the project work offered to me the possibility to experience diverse educational concepts and expand my pedagogical competences
- I learned many things : how to work with my colleagues, I expanded my organising skills...

What were the most serious challenges or difficulties to you?

- The quantity of work that is needed to carry out this type of projects.
- to manage a large group of students who had to travel and to accommodate into new families for a week
- Too much paperwork
- The amount of paperwork
- Insufficient technical resources for project activities
- nothing
- Making students cooperate, overcome linguistic and cultural barriers.
- The responsibility of travelling with students
- We hadn't enough time for our work...
- Good organization of the program ensured the conditions as not to meet with difficulties in implementing the program. As disadvantage I would mention the completion of many forms.
- no money granted for first teachers meeting
- The complex and high efforts in administration
- Nothing
- The fact that such a project is time consuming. It involves much more work and time than what I expected at the beginning
- Speak English

Would you be willing to participate in a further Erasmus+ project? Why? Why not?

- Probably because I think that it is a very useful experience for the students and for the teachers that participate in it and it is an important challenge to the school.
- yes, because we had many satisfactions and this kind of projects bring us closer to our students and to teachers from abroad
- Yes
- Yes (manifold reasons, e.g. professional development)
- Yes.
To get my acquired certain key transversal skills ; and to relate with other colleagues .
- yes, because it is always interesting to learn more about other schools, countries and teachers
- Yes, because they provide many benefits at many levels. They increase collaboration, enhance student motivation, enrich the curriculum and promote creative and critical thinking.
- yes
- Yes. It's very interesting
- Yes, i will
- With great pleasure I wouldd participated in a further Erasmus + project because my experiance from my participation in the previous one waw really excellant The only negative point was the completion of many forms
- Yes. It is a great possibility for students to connect within Europe and to live up to the European values.
- Yes, I would participate in a further Erasmus+ project, because it is an enormous enrichment for all. You cannot teach in lessons what students learn from participating in such a project.
- Yes, of course! Because now I feel - more than ever- teacher of Europe. I think that every Erasmus+ project is useful and it can learns you many things.
- Yes, but not immediately, It was very intense.
- Yes